4TH ANNUAL LATIN AMERICAN FILM FESTIVAL. AY CARAMBA!

Raving it up at the Anza Club.

September 13th 2006 - It was a wet and dreary Wednesday night when Santa Lucia played the September 13th closing party of the Vancouver Latin Film Festival at the ANZA Club. After a mellow opening act by singer/songwriter Tamara Niles and her band The Peals, it was up to Santa Lucia to bring the heat and energy of Latin America into the room. The longer they played, the more the filmmakers and their friends and fans danced, and soon the pouring rain outside was forgotten. Too soon, it was time for the evening to end. even though the dancers were calling for more, and the band would have liked to play on into the night, Latin American style.
